A by-law to impose development charges against lands to pay for increased capital costs required because of increased needs for services arising from development within the Regional Municipality of Peel.

WHEREAS Section 2 of the Development Charges Act, 1997, S.O. 1997, c. 27 (the "Act") authorizes the Council of the Regional Corporation to enact a By-law to impose development charges against land to pay for increased capital costs required because of increased needs for services arising from development;

AND WHEREAS Region of Peel By-law 115-2007 which imposes development charges expires on October 3, 2012;

AND WHEREAS a background study dated May 10, 2012 required by Section 10 of the Act was presented to Regional Council on May 10, 2012 and was completed within a one-year period prior to the enactment of this By-law;

AND WHEREAS the background study and draft proposed By-law were made available to the public at least 2 weeks prior to the public meeting required pursuant to Section 12 of the Act;

AND WHEREAS notice of the public meeting was provided in accordance with the requirements of Section 12 of the Act and in accordance with the Regulations under the Act, and such public meeting was held on June 14, 2012;

AND WHEREAS any person who attended the public meeting was afforded an opportunity to make representations and the public generally were afforded an opportunity to make written submissions relating to the proposed By-law;

AND WHEREAS Regional Council has by adopting the 2012 to 2021 Capital Plan on December 15, 2011, stated or hereby states that it is the intention of Regional Council to ensure that the increase in need for services identified in connection with the enactment of the By-law will be met;

AND WHEREAS Regional Council resolved on September 13, 2012 that no further public meeting is required and that this By-law should be brought forward for enactment;

NOW THEREFORE, the Council of the Regional Corporation enacts as follows:
1. Definitions

In this By-law:

"accessory" means where used to describe a use, building or structure, that the use, building or structure is naturally and normally incidental to and exclusively devoted to a principal use, building or structure;

"use" means the use of land, a building or a structure.

2. Provisions Required Under Section 6 of the Act

   (1) This By-law applies to the whole of the Regional Area and outside the Regional Area with respect to services of the Region that are provided outside of the Regional Area.

   (2) The rules developed under paragraph 9 of Sub-section 5(1) of the Act for determining if a development charge is payable in any particular case, and for determining the amount of the charge, are set forth in Sections 4 through 13 of this By-law.

   (3) How the rules referred to in Sub-section 2(2) apply to the re-development of land is set forth in Sections 1 ("development") and 10 of this By-law.

   (4) The express statement indicating how the rules provide for exemptions and for indexing of development charges are set forth in Sections 8, 9, 11, 12 and 13 of this By-law.

3. Designation of Services

   (1) The services for which development charges are imposed under this By-law are as follows:

       a) roads;
       b) wastewater;
       c) water supply;
       d) police;
       e) long term care;
       f) transhelp (transit for the disabled);
       g) management and provision of social housing;
       h) provision of domiciliary shelters;
       i) paramedics;
       j) growth studies;

   (2) Components of the development charges for services designated in Sub-section (1) are described in Schedules A, B(1), B(2) and B(3) to this By-law.
4. Development Charges Imposed

(1) Development charges are imposed against lands that are developed for a use other than an agricultural use if the development requires:

a) the passing of a By-law or of an amendment to a zoning By-law under Section 34 of the Planning Act;

b) the approval of a minor variance under Section 45 of the Planning Act;

c) a conveyance of land to which a By-law passed under Sub-section 50(7) of the Planning Act applies;

d) the approval of a plan of subdivision under Section 51 of the Planning Act;

e) a consent under Section 53 of the Planning Act;

f) the approval of a description under Section 50 of the Condominium Act or under Section 9 of the Condominium Act, 1998; or

g) the issuing of a permit under the Building Code Act, 1992 in relation to a building or structure.

(2) No more than one development charge for each action described in Sub-section 4(1) shall be imposed upon any land to which this By-law applies even though two or more of the actions described in Sub-section 4(1) are required for the land to be developed.

(3) Despite Sub-section 4(2), and subject to this By-law and to Section 4 of the Act, if two or more of the actions described in Sub-section 4(1) occur at different times, additional development charges shall be imposed in respect of any increased or additional development permitted by such action, at the time that such action occurs.

5. Calculation of Development Charges

(1) The development charge with respect to a development shall be calculated as follows:

a) in the case of residential development, or the residential portion of a mixed use development, based upon the number and type of dwelling units; or

b) in the case of non-residential development, or the non-residential portion of a mixed use development, based upon the total floor area of such development.

(2) Amount of Charge - Residential

The development charges described in Schedule A to this By-law are imposed on land developed for residential uses including dwelling units accessory to a non-residential use and, in the case of a mixed use building or structure, on the residential component of the mixed use building or structure, according to the type of residential use.
(3) Amount of Charge – Non-Residential-Industrial
The development charges described in the third column of each table in Schedule B(1) to this By-law are imposed on land developed for Industrial uses and, in the case of a mixed use building or structure, on the industrial component of the mixed use, and are calculated with respect to each of the services according to the total floor area of the industrial use.

(4) Amount of Charge-Non-Residential-Office
The development charges described in the fourth column of each table in Schedule B(2) to this By-law are imposed on land developed for office uses and, in the case of a mixed use building or structure, on the office component of the mixed use, and are calculated with respect to each of the services according to the total floor area of the office use.

(5) Amount of Charge - Non-Residential - Other
The development charges described in the tables in Schedule B(3) to this By-law are imposed on land developed for Non-Residential - Other uses and, in the case of a mixed use building or structure, on the Non-Residential - Other component of the mixed use, and are calculated with respect to each of the services according to the total floor area of the Non-Residential - Other use.

(6) Amount of Charge - Reduction Where Water or Wastewater Services Are Not Available or Not Approved for Construction Within Two Years
If either water or wastewater services or both are not available adjacent to any land within the Regional Area at the time a building permit is issued in respect of such land, and Regional Council has not at that time approved in principle the construction within the two years next following the year in which the building permit is issued of either water or wastewater services or both adjacent to such land, the development charge otherwise payable in respect of development on such land shall be reduced in an amount equal to the portion of the charge attributed to each such unavailable and unapproved service in the Schedules to this By-law.

(7) It is not necessary that the amount of the development charge for a particular development be limited to the increase in capital costs, if any, that are attributable to that particular development.

6. Timing of Payment

(1) Subject to any agreements entered into by the Region pursuant to the provisions of the Act or this By-law:

a) The development charges imposed under this By-law shall be payable on the date that a permit under the Building Code Act is issued in relation to a building or a structure on the land to which the development charge applies;
b) Where a development charge applies to land in relation to which a building permit is required, no building permit shall be issued until the development charge has been paid in full;

c) Where a development requires an approval described in Section 4 after the issuance of a building permit and no development charge has been paid, then the development charge shall be paid prior to the granting of the approval required under Section 4; and

d) Where a development requires an approval described in Section 4, after the issuance of a building permit and a development charge has been paid under the transition provisions of Section 13, which transition period has since expired, then additional development charges will be payable such that the total development charge imposed is the amount that would have been charged had the building permit been issued on the date of the granting of the approval required under Section 4.

(2) Without limiting the authority of the Region to enter into any other agreement, the Chief Financial Officer is hereby authorized to enter into agreements providing for the payment of all or any part of a non-residential development charge before or after it would otherwise be payable, pursuant to Section 27 of the Act, provided that the following conditions are met:

a) Security is provided in an amount and having form and content that is satisfactory to the Chief Financial Officer, to be realized or drawn upon in the event that the owner does not pay the charge;

b) the agreement contains provisions to index the development charges payable by the semi-annual Development Charges rate adjustment under Section 9;

c) the period of the deferral does not exceed four years commencing from the signing of the agreement; and

d) a non-refundable administration fee of $500 is paid by the person requesting the agreement to cover costs associated with preparing and monitoring the agreement.

(3) Where a building permit under the Building Code Act is to be issued in relation to a building or structure for an industrial or office use, the owner upon the request of the Chief Financial Officer shall enter into an agreement with the Region pursuant to Section 27 of the Act and Sub-section 6(2) of this By-law;

(4) In any agreement made under Sub-section 6(3) of this By-law, the Chief Financial Officer may require that the owner provide to the Region, or to the Treasurer of the lower tier municipality in which the lands are located, security in an amount and having a form and content satisfactory to the Chief Financial Officer, maintain and supplement such security as required, to be drawn upon in the event that there is a change in the use of the building or structure from an industrial or office use to a non-residential - other use within such period of time as is provided for in the agreement referred to in Sub-section 6(3) of this By-law; and

(5) Any security provided pursuant to Sub-section 6(4) may be drawn upon to secure the payment of any increased development charge required as a result of a change in the use of the building or structure.

7. Undetermined Uses

(1) If at the time a building permit is issued, the use of a non-residential building or structure has not been determined as between industrial, office or non-residential - other, the owner, at the Region's discretion, may be permitted to pay development charges in an amount equal to the lowest rate among the candidate uses, provided that the owner shall also submit, maintain, and if required supplement a non-revocable letter of credit, or other form of security, in an amount and upon terms satisfactory to the Chief Financial Officer, to be realized upon by the Region in the event that the building or structure is later determined by the Region to have a use that attracts a higher applicable development charge rate.

(2) Where the Region requires the payment of development charges at the office or non-residential - other rate in accordance with the Schedule B(2) or Schedule B(3) rate under Sub-section 7(1), the amount payable shall be the amount calculated at the rate or rates in effect at the later of the date of issuance of the building permit and the date that the payment of the development charges is received.

(3) Where the Region determines that the building or structure is an industrial or office use, the security provided to the Region pursuant to Sub-section 7(1) of this By-law shall be refunded or returned to the owner to the extent such security is not required under Sub-sections 7(1) and 7(2).

(4) The security provided to the Region pursuant to Sub-section 7(1) of this By-law, shall be increased annually forthwith upon demand by the Region to ensure that the security is adequate to satisfy the owner's potential liability for development charges pursuant to Sub-sections 7(1) and 7(2).

(5) In order for a building or structure to be deemed on an interim basis to be an industrial use for the purpose of this Section, more than 50 percent of the total floor area of the building or structure must be used for industrial purposes, as determined by the Region.
8. Temporary Buildings or Structures

(1) No development charge is imposed under this By-law in respect of a temporary building or structure so long as its status as a temporary building or structure is maintained in accordance with the provisions of this By-law.

(2) Upon application being made for the issuance of a permit under the Building Code Act in relation to a temporary building or structure on land to which a development charge applies, the Chief Financial Officer may require that the owner enter into an agreement with the Region pursuant to Section 27 of the Act and Sub-section 6(2) of this By-law and submit security satisfactory to the Chief Financial Officer, to be realized upon in the event that the temporary building or structure becomes protracted and development charges thereby become payable.

(3) In the event that a temporary building or structure becomes protracted, it shall be deemed not to be, nor ever to have been, a temporary building or structure and, subject to any agreement pursuant to Sub-section 6(2) of this By-law, development charges under this By-law shall become payable forthwith.

9. Indexing

The development charges as set out in the schedules to this By-law shall be adjusted without amendment to this By-law semi-annually on February 1st and August 1st in each year, commencing February 1st, 2013, in accordance with the Statistics Canada Quarterly, Capital Expenditure Price Statistics (Catalogue number 62-007) with the base index value being that in effect on October 4, 2012.

10. Demolition

(1) The rules applicable to development under this By-law are also applicable to redevelopment, subject to Sub-section 10(2) of this By-law.

(2) Despite any other provision of this By-law, where, as a result of the redevelopment of land, a building or structure existing on the same land prior to the date of payment of development charges in respect of the redevelopment, has been demolished in whole or in part on or after November 6, 1991, the development charges otherwise payable with respect to the redevelopment shall be reduced by the aggregate of the following amounts:

a) where an industrial use is being redeveloped: an amount calculated by multiplying the development charge under Sub-section 5(3) respectively by the industrial total floor area that has been demolished;

b) where an office use is being redeveloped, an amount calculated by multiplying the development charge under Sub-section 5(4) by the office total floor area that has been demolished;
c) where a non-residential - other use is being redeveloped: an amount calculated by multiplying the development charge under Sub-section 5(5) by the non-residential – other total floor area that has been demolished;
d) where a residential use is being redeveloped for a residential use: an amount calculated by multiplying the development charge under Sub-section 5(2) by the number, according to type of dwelling units that have been demolished; and
e) where a residential use is being redeveloped for a non-residential use: an amount calculated by multiplying that part of the development charge under Sub-section 5(2) and Schedule A which is attributable to water supply, wastewater, regional roads, growth studies and police services by the number, according to type, of dwelling units that have been demolished;

provided that evidence satisfactory to the Chief Financial Officer is provided as to the total floor area or type and number of dwelling units that have been demolished and provided the amount of any credit hereunder shall not exceed, in total or in the aggregate, the amount of the development charges otherwise payable with respect to the redevelopment.

11. Exemptions

(1) Despite any other provision of this By-law, no development charge is imposed under this By-law respecting:

a) land used as a hospital;
b) land owned by and used only for the purposes of the Region, the area municipalities or local boards;
c) land owned by a district school board and used only for district school board purposes;
d) land owned by a college or university and used only for the purposes of a college or university;
e) that portion of a building or structure, limited to not more than one room, owned by a religious organization which is reserved for the conduct of group worship, services or rites;
f) land owned by an agricultural society and used only for the purposes of an agricultural society;
g) the development of land by the installation of a mobile temporary sales trailer.

(2) No development charge is imposed under this By-law in respect of land developed for an agriculture use.
12. Industrial Expansion Exemption

(1) Despite any other provision of this By-law the terms "existing industrial building" and "floor area" shall, for the purpose of the interpretation of this By-law in connection with Section 4 of the Act (exemption for the enlargement of the gross floor area of an existing industrial building), have the meanings defined for them in the Regulation.

(2) For the purpose of interpreting the definition of "existing industrial building" contained in the Regulation, regard shall be had for the classification of the lands in question pursuant to the Assessment Act and in particular:

a) whether the lands fall within a tax class such that taxes on the lands are payable at the industrial tax rate;
b) whether more than 50 percent of the gross floor area of the building or structure has an industrial property code for assessment purposes;

(3) Subject to Sub-section 12(2)(b), distribution centres, warehousing, the bulk storage of goods and truck terminals shall be considered industrial uses.

(4) For the purpose of the application of Section 4 of the Act to the operation of this By-law:

a) the gross floor area of an existing industrial building shall be calculated as it existed prior to the first enlargement in respect of that building for which an exemption under Section 4 of the Act is sought; and
b) the enlargement of the gross floor area of the existing building:
   i) shall be attached to the existing industrial building;
   ii) shall not be attached to the existing industrial building by means only of any one or more tunnel, bridge, canopy, corridor or other passageway, shared below grade connection, foundation, footing or parking facility;
   iii) shall have an industrial use as set out in this By-law; and
   iv) shall otherwise qualify as a bona fide increase in the size of the existing building.

13. Transition

(1) Notwithstanding Subsection 5(3), and subject to Section 9 of this By-law, the applicable development charge imposed on Non-Residential-Industrial development, or in the case of a mixed-use building or structure on the industrial component of the mixed-use, shall be the rate indicated in the second column of each of the tables in Schedule B(1) to this By-law provided that a building permit has been issued for the development between the period commencing October 4, 2012 up to and including December 14, 2013 or such date after December 14, 2013 as Regional Council may determine by resolution.
(2) Notwithstanding Subsection 5(4), and subject to Section 9 of this By-law, the applicable development charge imposed on Non-Residential-Office development, or in the case of a mixed-use building or structure on the office use component of the mixed-use, shall be the rate indicated in the second column of each of the tables in Schedule B(2) to this By-law provided that a building permit has been issued for the development between the period commencing October 4, 2012 up to and including January 31, 2013, and shall be the rate indicated in the third column of each of the tables in Schedule B(2) to this By-law provided that a building permit has been issued for the development between the period commencing February 1, 2013 up to and including July 31, 2013.

14. Schedules

The following schedules to this By-law are hereby enacted and form an integral part of this By-law:

- Schedule A - Residential Development Charge Rates
- Schedule B(1) - Non-Residential Development Charge Rates-Industrial
- Schedule B(2) - Non-Residential Development Charge Rates-Office
- Schedule B(3) - Non-Residential Development Charge Rates-Other

15. By-law Registration

A certified copy of this By-law may be registered in the By-law register in the Land Registry Office against any or all lands in the Regional area and may be registered against title to any land to which this By-law applies.

16. Date in Force

This By-law comes into force and effect on October 4, 2012.

17. Interpretation

(1) All words defined in the Act or the Regulation have the same meaning in this By-law as they have in the Act or the Regulation unless they are defined differently in this By-law.

(2) All references to the provisions of any statute or regulation or to the Ontario Building Code contained in this By-law shall also refer to the same or similar provisions in the statute or regulation or code as amended, replaced, revised or consolidated from time to time.
18. Severability

If for any reason any provision, section, Sub-section or paragraph of this By-law is held invalid, it is hereby declared to be the intention of Council that all the remainder of this By-law shall continue in full force and effect until repealed, re-enacted or amended.

19. Short Title

This By-law may be referred to as the Region of Peel Development Charges By-law, 2012.
