Corporate Services titled "Region of Peel and Town of Caledon Joint Land Evaluation and Area Review Study and Edge Planning for Agriculture Discussion Paper", be received;

And further, that staff be directed to use the results of the LEAR Study as a basis for undertaking further consultation on the identification of Prime Agricultural Areas through the Peel 2041: Region of Peel Official Plan Review;

And further, that staff be directed to use the results of the LEAR Study to inform consultations with the Province on the provincial initiative to identify Prime Agricultural Areas as part of an Agricultural System for the Greater Golden Horseshoe;

And further, that the Edge Planning for Agriculture discussion paper, as outlined in the subject report, be received and that staff be directed to continue with consultations on the agricultural policy review component of the Peel 2041: Region of Peel Official Plan Review, to include policy options to mitigate impacts to agriculture;

And further, that a copy of the subject report be circulated to the Ministry of Municipal Affairs, Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs, Town of Caledon, City of Brampton, City of Mississauga, Credit Valley Conservation and Toronto and Region Conservation and the Peel Federation of Agriculture for their information.

Carried 2016-616

Councillor Innis noted that Town of Caledon staff have been requesting the provincial government to look at weighting criteria for mapping and to place more emphasis on supportive infrastructure in order for agriculture to thrive and grow. Councillor Innis inquired as to the impact changed weighting could have on the Land Evaluation and Area Review Study.

Mark Head, Manager, Research and Analysis, advised that the provincial government has begun the process to map the agricultural system, including prime agriculture and that staff would be reporting on the Coordinated Land Review and would address the issue raised by Councillor Innis in the report.

Councillor Innis requested that a copy of the subject report and resolution be sent to the Peel Federation of Agriculture.
