

RGI Eligibility Checklist

Reference is O. Reg. 367/11 s. 23 – 27, 32, 36

Please note: This checklist is not inclusive of additional eligibility requirements such as co-operative membership, building mandates (e.g. seniors only) etc. The checklist is a guideline only.

At least one member of the household is 16 years of age or older and able to live independently (with or without supports)

Each member of the household must meet at least one of the following criteria:

- Member is a Canadian citizen
- Member has made an application for status as a permanent resident
- Member has made a claim for refugee protection
- Documents must be valid and/or not expired

There is no enforceable removal order under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act against any member of the household

A member requesting an additional bedroom for a custody agreement or visiting rights involving overnight stays, as applicable

No member of the household has been convicted of an offence under the Housing Services Act s. 55 or of a crime under the Criminal Code (Canada) relating to the receipt of RGI assistance in the past two years

No member of the household has a legal or beneficial interest in a freehold or leasehold estate in residential property suitable for year-round occupancy

No member of the household owes arrears with regards to a previous tenancy in any housing project; or

Any member of the household who owes arrears with regards to a previous tenancy in any housing project has a current repayment agreement in good standing

! Helpful Reminders !

- Obtain and retain appropriate documentation
- Use the checklist for each household member, where appropriate
- Useful reminder when household is requesting to add an occupant
- Useful as part of a bring-forward or follow-up system