Affordable Home Ownership Sale Prices by Household Income (2023)

Housing is generally considered affordable if it costs less than 30% of a household's before-tax income.

Peel Region

The lesser of: Housing that costs less than 30% of before-tax annual household income for low and moderate income households

Housing where the purchase price is at least 10% below average cost of a resale unit in regional Peel Region.

HOUSING ASSESSMENT:

The Region of Peel Official Plan includes a Peel-wide new housing unit target on affordability.

Developments of 50 housing units or more must prepare a Housing Assessment that:

- Shows how local and Regional housing objectives and policies are being met
- Shows how the development is contributing to Peel-wide new housing unit targets on affordability, rental and density

A housing assessment and contribution towards the housing targets are required for all residential developments in Peel Region. including developments in areas where inclusionary zoning applies.

Development applicants can contribute to the affordability target in a number of ways, which includes:

- 1. A contribution of land or units to the Region or a non-profit housing provider to be used for affordable housing.
- 2. Providing affordable units for low or moderate income households that are consistent with the definition of affordability.

Low Income Households Moderate Income Households

High Income Households

Income deciles divide the working-age population (15+ years) into 10 equally sized groups according to rank by total income (e.g. those in Decile 1 fall in the lowest 10 percent of total income distribution).

DECILE 1 DECILE 2 DECILE 3 DECILE 4 DECILE 5 DECILE 6 DECILE 7 DECILE 8

These households earn up to:

$41,700

$64,200

$103,200

These households earn up to:

$144,500

$535,400

$170,900

These households earn up to:

$261,400

DECILE 9

DECILE 10

$261,401+

Households can afford a sale price of:

$130,800

$264,100

Households can afford a sale price of:

$323,400 $384.400

$452,700

Households can afford a sale price of:

$639,600

$204,100

$819,201+

Partnerships between the applicant, the Region of Peel, local municipalities, and/or the non-profit sector are explored to It is anticipated that units identified to address moderate income provide units that are affordable to low income households. needs will be predominantly provided by the private sector.

Source: Province of Ontario Affordable Residential Units Bulletin

S Household Income