

2025 Interim Emergency Food Security Fund Preliminary Application

The 2025 Interim Emergency Food Security Fund will be open to organizations that are Food Banks and Food Warehouses (see definition below).

Please complete the following preliminary application questions to determine your eligibility to apply to the 2025 Interim Emergency Food Security Fund. Please ensure that your Service Provider Profile (SPP) on GovGrants is up to date to include all mandatory documents (See 2025 Interim Emergency Food Security Fund Application Guidelines). Eligible applicants will be contacted by email.

Applicant Contact Information
Applicant Organization
Applicant Address
Contact Person
Contact Email
Contact Phone Number

1. Is your organization a food bank or food warehouse? (Please refer to the definitions below)

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

2. Are you a recipient of the 2024 Food Security Emergency Response Fund?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

3. Have you been in receipt of Community Investment (CIP) Funds within the last 2 years?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

4. Please summarize the urgency of your request. Provide supporting evidence where applicable.

--

Definitions

Food Bank- A program that collects food and necessities and redistributes minimum of 7-10 pounds of food on a regular basis to Peel residents experiencing food security (e.g. consistent set number of days and hours operating per week).

Food Distribution Warehouse- A large storage space acquired for the purpose of receiving safely and distributing food to individuals and community organizations (typically 10,000 sq. Ft. or more).

Please send your completed application to cip@peelregion.ca