

Situation #1

You ride to soccer with your friend and their parents. You smell alcohol when you get in the car.

What should you do?
Who can you talk to?

Situation #2

Your older cousin drinks on the weekends and you think it is becoming a problem and a habit.

Where would you go to get help?

Who could you talk to?

Situation #3

You've noticed that one of your grandparents has been drinking more beer lately. You tell your parents, but they say you shouldn't worry about it.

Who could you talk to?

Situation #4

Your family is at a picnic and the adults are drinking from a punch bowl with alcohol in it. You notice that some of the kids are taking some to drink. One of them tells you to get some too and says to you, "don't worry, nobody will notice".

What do you do?

Situation #5

There's a school dance and you and your friend are excited about going. Your friend decides to take a can of beer to the dance because they have seen ads on TV showing people having a good time at parties while drinking beer.

What do you do?

Situation #6

You are walking home from school with your friends when one of them pulls out a can of beer from their backpack. "Let's walk through the park and try this out" they say.

What would you do?

Situation #7

Matthew, who is in grade 5, was invited for dinner with a friend's family. They had wine on the table, and the friend took some and then offered some to Matthew.

What should Matthew do?

Situation #8

Salem and Keshia were invited to Usman's house one Saturday night. They knew Usman's parents were not home, but they didn't realize that Usman was having a party. "Have a beer!" Usman said. "There's plenty for everyone."

What should Salem and Keshia do?

Situation #9

Aisha had been babysitting for a neighbour's kids. When the parents arrived home, it was obvious that the parents had consumed too much alcohol. "Come on, Aisha, I'll drive you home" said Mr. Brinks. Aisha didn't want to be impolite but was concerned. Aisha really didn't know what to do.

What should Aisha do?

Situation #10

Jose asks you to come over and hang out. When you arrive, you discover Jose's parents are having a party and there is a lot of alcohol around. Jose pulls out a bottle of wine and says "Look what I was able to get. Let's go to the backyard and try some".

What do you do?

Situation #11

A bunch of Femi's friends were getting together before the school dance to drink. Femi wasn't interested in drinking but also didn't want to go to the dance alone.

What could Femi do?

Situation #12

When you go to the bathroom at recess, you find a group of your classmates drinking alcohol. They ask you if you want to try some.

What do you do?

