

Peel Reception Centre

The Peel Region Reception Centre is the largest shelter in Canada specifically for asylum claimants. It offers temporary accommodations along with integrated support services designed to address the specific needs of this population.

The Centre is located at 5100 Spectrum Way in Mississauga, which is near Toronto at the intersection of Eglinton Avenue and Dixie Road in the east end of Peel Region, near Pearson International Airport and on major bus routes.

Centralized Services for Asylum Claimants

- Settlement support
- Immigration support
- Housing services
- Income support
- Employment services
- Legal aid support
- Primary health services
- IRCC staff on-site
- Service Canada staff on-site

Please note: This is NOT a drop-in program. Clients must access the Centre through Peel Region's central intake by calling 647-368-5880.

About Peel Region

Peel Region is home to approximately 1.5 million people and over 200,000 businesses in Brampton, Mississauga, and Caledon. Brampton Transit, Mississauga MiWay and GO public transit systems serve Peel.

For more information, visit peelregion.ca

