

Victims & Survivors of Crime Week PhotoVoices Series submission form

Please note that this process does not require the disclosure of specific encounters, situations, or experience with sex trafficking. Applicants are requested to strictly refrain from sharing any personal and/or identifying details of their trafficking experience.

Do you identify as a person with lived experience of sex trafficking?

Yes No

Do you consent to Peel Region using the photo/narrative you have submitted as part of the 2026 Victims & Survivors of Crime Week PhotoVoices series?

Yes No

Do you confirm that the photo/narrative you have submitted meets the identified submission guidelines set out in the Call for Submissions document and does not include any personal and/or identifying information?

Yes No

Do you consent to your submission being used for additional opportunities such as use in a Communications strategy, social media posts, or a permanent exhibit? You may submit written notice to request removal at any time.

Yes No

Your photo will be displayed with a brief explanation of how it represents your healing journey. Please complete the phrase with one sentence:

“This photo represents my healing journey because...”

Privacy and consent statement

I affirm that the information included in this submission is true to the best of my knowledge and I further affirm that this submission is representative of my own healing journey as someone with lived experience of sex trafficking.

Any person who chooses to submit for this exhibit maintains the right to request removal of their submission at any time by emailing antihumantrafficking@peelregion.ca.

This exhibit is anonymous and your name/email address/additional information will not be shared publicly or with community partners. This information is used for the above attestation to protect the integrity of the exhibit and wellbeing of those who choose to submit. Should there be notable changes to the exhibit, your contact information will be used to relay information to ensure a continuing relationship of consent.

Name

Signature